"REGAL THREAD: A HIMROO SAGA"

Welcome to a mesmerizing journey through the rich tapestry of India's heritage, "Regal Thread: A Himroo Saga." This theme celebrates the timeless elegance and intricate craftsmanship of Himroo, a traditional fabric that has been a symbol of royalty and sophistication for centuries.

Himroo, derived from Persian weaving techniques, combines silk and cotton to create an ethereal texture that mirrors the opulence of brocade. Once gracing the courts of the Nizams and Mughal royalty, this fabric is known for its delicate motifs inspired by Persian art and Indian culture.

Tonight's show reimagines this exquisite fabric in contemporary designs, blending tradition with modernity. Each ensemble showcases the versatility of Himroo, from flowing gowns and regal capes to tailored silhouettes and avant-garde creations.

CULTURE INDOWESTERN

Indo-Western fashion refers to a synthesis of Indian and Western styles of fashion. Since the fusion of these two styles has allowed for the elements of two distinct cultures to be recognized, celebrated, and fused into one, this style of fashion is also known as fusion fashion. Not restricted by the limitations of culture and geographical boundaries, Indo-Western fashion style has inspired creativity and design to further refine this ingenious blends.
